TASTING NOTES

Colour: Deep, dark red with violet hues
Aroma: Rich, complex bouquet showing terroir driven balsamic and spicy cedar and dill
Taste: The mouthfeel is firm, warm and full bodied, with a subtle underlying mineral character. Expressive, well structured and with a long, persistent finish
Food: Pairs nicely with steak, gourmet burgers and rack of lamb

AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2019 ~ 93 Points. EDITOR'S CHOICE "Loving the savory complexity and tension here, with black raspberry and dried currants interwoven with pumpernickel, fennel, leather, and coffee-toffee aromatics. There's great energy and concentration to the fruit, and it finishes fresh and long with a sturdy tannic backbone. A beauty right now, and should pick up steam over the next couple years and drink well through 2033." - John Sumners - Wine Enthusiast, Jul/2026

OTHER INFO

Venta Jalón is the name given by ancient locals to the area in which the vineyard is settled today. 'Venta Jalón's Finca 17', or 'Vineyard number 17', was planted 20 years ago in clay loam soils which make wines with a good concentration, a marked varietal fruit character and ripe tannins.

Fermentation lasted 8 days, with controlled temperature never exceeding 29°C, followed by a further 10 days maceration in contact with the skins. 24 months subsequent ageing in both French and American oak barrels, and a further 9 months cellaring in bottle before release.
